Keep on running like you running keep shining down the cloud you on Can't nobody bring you down Keep providing that chop shop shit you been sliding them all along They'll lay it all down
But stand up, step out to do what you're paid to do again
And soon my friend they gonna come around They gonna wear her down And they'll figure out what to say to make her change her mind
About the one she love And should be thinking of The one a cut above all the other suckas lining up to take a stab

Chorus

That's why it's gotta be evacuation Talking emergency
You're everything I want
And everything I need
And I'm not gonna take it Suckas backsideing me

Lost in space I run into the other man face to face
I seen my share of downs Took my licks over the middle, I've seen a little contact
But I gained some ground And it's a low class, punk ass shame when they all about your game
But take their aim once you not around
The way they tear you down
And they figure out what to say to make her change her mind
About the one she love and should be thinking of The one a cut above all the other suckas lining up to take a stab

Chorus

I'm just so excited about the good things

I'm just so excited to be free of some of the bad, bad things
I wanna shine, shine, shine, can I show you what I had in mind
We gonna burn, burn, burn, if you not afraid to learn how I'm just so excited thinking of the word
