slow, slow, slow
the dog day drags along remembering the friends who've come and gone down the road tempers runnin hot but somethin sweet's stirrin in your pot it's what you got that keeps me keeping on went to the river and it looked like rain i crossed the water and it looked like rain can't find the use in taking no time for excuses waitin for the rain to fall so long you feel you're not gonna make it thru another day so long you'd rather be anywhere but here, wastin away thinkin bout tomorrow and how slow the time goes waitin for the rain to fall it's the middle of September and it's still hotter than I can remember everybody's talkin bout how's it keep on gettin worse but time only time will tell time only time will tell if one day soon that bubble gonna burst
went to the river and it looked like rain
turn on the radio sit and watch the clouds roll waitin for the rain to fall
