"The Wildest Heart"

She's an angel in a one horse town
Like a rolling cloud surrounded in blue
She's a stranger to the wise advice
Rather roll the dice than settle for good

And she's the wildest heart I know
She's the wildest heart I know
She's the wildest heart I know
Out there running free, riding on a dream
The wildest heart I know

On the weekend, she don't need no rest
She dancing pirouettes outside in the sun
She don't worry when the bad news comes
Keeps her head up high and song in her lungs

And she's the wildest heart I know
She's the wildest heart I know
She's the wildest heart I know
Out there running free, riding on a dream
The wildest heart I know

She's an angel of a different kind
Not the type you'll find out there on a cloud
