Scum!

Well images of our decay
Should we bow our heads today?
Images of refugees, suffocating humanity
There's no solution to world pollution
This overcrowded population
Images of scenes to come
We cannot hide...we cannot run

Well images of modern life
The things we have...we sacrifice
Images of television pouring out more terrorism
Men and rats will be as one
Crawling through these streets of scum
Images of Jesus Christ
Strung up on his cross of ice

No more law and no more rule
No more books and no more school
No more law and no more rule
No more books and no more school

Scum!

Well images of forests dead
Blackened waters, skies are red
Images of forgotten laws
Computer age, atomic wars
No solution to world pollution
Overcrowded population
Images of scenes to come
You cannot hide, you cannot run

No more law and no more rule
No more books and no more school
No more law and no more rule
No more books and no more school
No more law and no more rule
No more books and no more school
No more law and no more rule

No more books and no more school
No more law and no more rule
No more books and no more school
No more law and no more rule
No more books and no more school
