Too many people got the money
They're stacking up a lot of cash
Too many people got the muscle
They gotta make a bigger stash

But I drink all night and I drink all day
I got cocaine in my veins

Too many people like the pressure
They like living on the pain
Too many people like to suffer
They have their heart attacks again

But I drink all night and I drink all day
I got cocaine in my veins
We're the great unwashed

Too many people got the questions
But do they really want to know
Too many people spend their lifetime
They're getting fat as money grows

But I drink all night and I drink all day
I got cocaine in my veins

Too many people gonna steal it
They want their fingers in your pie
Too many people gonna take it
They're gonna bleed you till you're dry

But I drink all night and I drink all day
I got cocaine in my veins
We're the great unwashed

Someday I'm gonna make some changes
I'm gonna put you in your place
Someday I'm gonna be somebody
I'm gonna win this fucking race

But I drink all night and I drink all day
I get so damned stoned to hear what you say

I got cocaine in my veins
We're the great unwashed
