Here comes the shining
Here comes the shining

It's been a long cold winter
My heart has turned to ice
But that's the way they say it's always been Well I tried so hard to find you
Come on, let's burn tonight
This fallen angel's gonna spread his wings and fly again

It's been so many years
Come on, let's shine tonight
Oh so many years
And here it comes
And here it comes
And here it comes
And here comes the shining
Here it comes
Here it comes
And here comes the shining

My coat of many colours
Has turned a shade of blue
Why don't we tumble into bed?
She said
We're gonna start a fire
Let's make it burn all night
If you say I'm cold again
Then I'll take you up to a hundred and ten

It's been so many years
Come on, let's shine tonight
Oh so many years
And here it comes
And here it comes
And here it comes
And here comes the shining
Here it comes
Here it comes
Here it comes

Now here comes the shining

Here comes the shining

Here it comes

Here it comes

Here it comes

Now here comes the shining

We're gonna shine tonight

Shine tonight...
