"Pain Is The Reason"

Feet are sinking into an earth of ridicule my face blank with old sleep your life is nothing but a lie you fail me everything you stand for imbedded falsely this is the last time you breathe you are nothing but a fading memory staring into the eyes of your own misconception cherish your last living moment I feel pain is the reason your loneliness buries you empty and hollow severing the ties your bitter end is near you cannot break me strength honor nothing can break me wasting away your indecision displays your bad intentions your false hopes of acceptance shattered and swept away.
