(Verse 1: Canary Julz)

They say you're superbad but you knew that, on instagram straight flexing, That figure 8 got me fully invested, because baby that body is a blessing,
I know these n*ggas be all in your face,
You want them to give you you're space,
You work your a off everyday,
You wish you could just get away,
Come over here let me help you escape, relieve that stress, relieve that pain, Said your last man didn't treat you right, well try something new, you need that change, drop your garments on that floor, and bring it over here let me see that thing, But this isn't all i'm trying to do, it's all about you I don't play no games, and we can

(Chorus: Chrishan)

Take It Slow,
We can do it anywhere you want,
Girl nobody has to Know,
What We Do,
That's between me and you,
Oh yeah Rpt x 4
Take It there Rpt x 4
All up in your body, you got that and I want you to know,
We can Take It Slow yeah

(Verse 2: Canary Julz)

You ain't gotta worry about it, girl were grown, yeah were grown, Their all in our business why don't they worry about their own, about their own, It's just me and you and these walls, don't have no worries at all, Let your feelings take control and let those inhibitions
go,
We can keep it low, if that's how you want this thing to go,
You Just want someone to chill with I respect that Sh*t for sure,

I'll be your Boo-Thing, and you can be my Boo-Thing, I can change your life and introduce you to some new things, and baby we can

(Chorus)

(Bridge: Chrishan)
Brown skin, I wonder if you taste sweeter than sugar, Your lips, they're so enticing I don't want to f*ck up yeah,
Sorry if i'm taking too much time,
I just want to show your body right,
I got plans for me and you,
If you ready for this girl

(Chorus) (Rpt x 2)
