Bruised and beaten with worthlessness
I am lost in the reeds of the river
We fall so far away
Cause and effect driven into a canvas
It will shatter

Abstract we fall through the ceiling of heavens clouds
A sea of faces paints the ocean a new color blue

Your whisper breaks through the wind
Comfort found in rest
The iris isn't far from heavens lovely arms
They know they will follow
You all the way back home
Heaven gone, but not for long.

Abstract we fall through the ceiling of heavens clouds
A sea of faces paints the ocean a new color blue

We will live in your love
This is our only way out
Abstract we fall in love with you
