"At Sea"

Winter is here, tell me I can go
Far away from the ice and snow.
Take me to where the air is sweet,
Wind in my hair and sand at my feet.

I'm taking it all in stride,
Hoping the water's wide,
And we will dive in deep and stay at sea.

Voices are calling, I don't know who,
'Cause the only one that I hear is you.
Laugh with me shy like the day we met,
And let's go to places we haven't yet.

We're taking it all in stride,

Hoping the water's wide,
And we will dive in deep and stay at sea.

A shiver reminds me that I'm at home,
But your hand on my back says I'm not alone.
The middle of winter is still our truth,
Oh, but outside our window an ocean view.

'Cause we're taking it all in stride,
Hoping the water's wide,
And we will dive in deep,
And stay at sea.

[Repeat chorus]
