Uprise - in times of deceit
Millions await the self-proclaimed elite
A dynasty in fire will ascend
Tyranny and misgovernment - soon it will end

All will change after the accession to the throne
Then we will rule alone

Triumph - Behold the banner unfurled
The sound of trumpets all over the world
Perspicacious - as the earth is purified
Centuries of tyranny has come to an end

All will change after the accession to the throne
Then we will rule alone - Then we rule you all

Both land and sea we shall control
Inviolable after the accession to the throne
Fire... Baptized in fire

Awakening in a far greater state
Mother cleansed, suffering abates
Totalitarian intolerant regime
Behold our creation the greatest ever seen

All will change after the accession to the throne
Then we will rule alone - Then we rule you all
