It gets harder every day
Every day you're away
Ayy
And I shouldn't still care
I can't understand why
I can't get over you
Gotta put a smile over my face
And act like I'm okay, okay
Cause the whole world's watching
If they knew that I'd been crying over you

Ohh I cannot hide behind my bloodshot eyes
So I put on my shades try to cover my face
Just so you don't know

No my bloodshot eyes can't stand to cry no more
Oh I cannot hide behind my bloodshot eyes
So I put on my shades try to cover my face

I wish you would let me go
Cause you got a hold on me you don't even know
I can never let you see how much you're ruining my life
She be moving on but I still got you in my mind
Ay ay ay ay

Often I wonder if you're feeling like me
I want nobody to see what I'm going through
Still drying my eyes cause I ain't over you

Ohh I cannot hide behind my bloodshot eyes
So I put on my shades try to cover my face
Just so you don't know

No my bloodshot eyes can't stand to cry no more
Oh I cannot hide behind my bloodshot eyes
So I put on my shades try to cover my face
