"Born With A Broken Heart"

Just let me slip inside this cherry wine
So we can talk about those done-me-wrongs
I was born with a broken heart
Help me understand
Put me on my knees
Please, darling cut me with your diamond tongue
So I can lick the wounds of sacrifice
I was born with a broken heart
Help me understand
I miss the wanting in your evil eyes
I've been done
There's been no smiling in these lonely thighs
I've been alone
You can touch me
Anytime at all
When you touch me
