"Can't Get Enough"

From the minute I wake up I feel it, to the second I
crash in my bed,
Artificial highs I don't need it, it rushes into my head.

Can't get enough, can't get enough,
Can't get enough, it's my drug.
Can't get enough, can't get enough,
Can't get enough of my... drug.

No need for sleep, can't buy it off the street, the beats
in my veins,
Can't find it in a pill, it's no cheap thrill, the adrenaline numbs my pain.

Can't get enough, can't get enough,
Can't get enough, it's my drug.
Can't get enough, can't get enough,
Can't get enough of my...

..you're gonna need it.

Can't get enough, can't get enough,
Can't get enough, it's my drug.
Can't get enough, can't get enough,
Can't get enough of my... drug.
