Years of oppression, a history of scornful laughter
Has come to an end, gruesome, sinister but fair
As clouds of darkness covers the moonlight sky
The final strike will end all unholy lies

Spreading the plague
With hellsworn fire

The time has come when the sun no longer rises
In the twilight hour the sinners will loose their faces
Those feeble souls, the sheep despising sin
Will forever burn with a hellish fire within

Spreading the plague
A ravenous choir
Spreading the plague
With hellsworn fire

Children of sin - Evoke those glorious deeds
Children of sin - Rise from the seventh circle

Hiding deep in the shadows far away from the light
In silence they are here to seal the eternal night

Years of oppression, a history of scornful laughter
Has come to an end, gruesome, sinister but fair
As clouds of darkness covers the moonlight sky
The final strike will end all unholy lies

Spreading the plague
A ravenous choir
Spreading the plague
With hellsworn fire

Children of sin - Evoke those glorious deeds
Children of sin - Rise from the seventh circle
