The dial tone is misleading my heart.
I stop to fall apart.
They say it's fine for you to have a self centered point of view.
And I'm alone and the telephone asks me where you are.
Spiraling up the cord I caught your perfect little lie.

Don't stay. Don't stay. I never knew you anyways
Don't stay. Don't stay. Save your own skin
Don't stay. Don't say. While you go, go dig deep a foxhole for one.

Red as wine I see the drugs in your eyes.
Not a big surprise.
I've had it up to here with your stupid little point of view
So put on your shoes! Yeah go drink you booze!
You've drained all of my sympathy.
Let me be so I can gracefully resign.

Don't stay. Don't stay. I never knew you anyways
Don't stay. Don't stay. Save your own skin
Don't stay. Don't say. While you go, go dig deep a foxhole for one.

HaHaHa
Do it
Don't stay. Save your own skin

Don't stay. Don't stay. I never knew you anyways
Don't stay. Don't stay. Save your own skin
Don't stay. Don't stay. I never knew you anyways
Don't stay. Don't stay. Save your own skin
Don't stay. Don't say. While you go, go dig deep a foxhole for one.
Yeah go dig your self a foxhole for one
Yeah go dig your self a foxhole for one
