See light and I roll over
A day like this
And this alone
Compels me to climb over
To live through this
And leave alone
What if I had only
If I could have only Would truth speak to save me where my pride has enslaved me
Seek shelter in what's after this your future is everything
Get a quick glimpse of forever and this changes your everything
Soon mother
Soon the wait
Soon we'll be over the waiting truth speak up Restore my name
Beg to be broken
Heard again
Please wisdom
Be heard again please vision be heard again and once again my hesitate attempts and again this fragile accident belongs.
