Yeahh,
This used to be a house untill the wall came tumbling down,
Now what we going to do now?
With both our feelings hurt and words keep blurting out
And somehow we found a way to turn love into hate
You can hear the bell ring for the final round
It's going down...

(Corus)
This aint love
This aint human
This aint real so what the fuck is we doing,
This aint life, there's much more to it
This whole situation is ruiend,
Trapped in and we can't get out, we can't get out, we can't get out,
Trapped in and we can't get out, we can't get out, we
can't get out

I used to have a heart, But now there's a hole inside my chest
Because where so far apart... Yeahhh
It's like we aint the same people, I don't even see you the same Baybay
And how we turn kissing into fighting, I don't know!
And we got not unbrella for the rain
Yeahhhhhhhh
