[Jamison Covington/Alex Hovis]

[Alex]

Think of all these roses
Think of all the nights
We spent chasing afternoons

Think of all these moments
Think of all the blown
Time put into something new

Think of all these roses
Pulling blood from every finger
Holding your eyes open
Bit by bit we fall together

Think of all these roses
Hate to tell you you've been broken
Holding your eyes open
To see something deep inside you

[Jamison]

If you could hear this now
I would say to you..

Hold your breath
'Cause it's all you get
To see this through
While i try my best
To get over you

[Alex]

Think of all these moments
I can't find the words to tell
Take another step in
You will find what you've been trying to

Think of all these moments
Find the words and throw them at you
Take another step in
Lies are lies and you'll be tried soon

[Jamison]
If you could hear this now
I would say to you..

Hold your breath
'Cause it's all you get
To see this through
While i try to forget you

And keep that kiss
Keep it near your lips
With that last goodbye
I hate it but you'll sleep alone tonight

[Alex]
Think of all these moments
Think of all the blown time
Put into something new

[Jamison]
If you could hear this now
I would say to you

Hold your breath
'Cause it's all you get
See this through
While I try to forget you

And keep that kiss
Keep it near your lips
With that last goodbye
I hate it but you'll sleep alone tonight..

[Alex]
Think of all these roses
Pulling blood from every finger
Holding your eyes open
Bit by bit we fall together

[Jamison]
Keep that kiss
Keep it near your lips
With that last goodbye
I hate it but you'll sleep alone
Tonight
