[Verse 1]

If you were hurt like I was before
Ladies gone turn up your radio
Cause I'ma sing this one for us yeah
Sit and complain about our attitude
Talk about the things we do
To me it seems so obvious
(They like it)
They keep comin back
For more yeah

You're always so quick to up and criticize
I've got my faults and yes I realize
I've become so hard to deal with
Cause this part of my heart
Is so tired

[Chorus]

How many times, how many times, how many times
Oh I caught you on the phone with her
How many times, how many times, how many times
Did I take you back and you broke my heart
Oh this song know how I feel
You betrayed my love
Ohh And the moral of the story is
How many times
How many times

[Verse 2]

Our sister, our sister Mary (Real love)
she used to tell us bout this in the 90's
I used to say that'll never be no never never me
But it's 2011 and I feel I can't get any lower Takin out my anger on any and everybody that comes around
I've become so hard to deal with
Cause this part of my heart
Is so tired

[Chorus]

How many times, how many times, how many times
Oh I caught you on the phone with her
How many times, how many times, how many times
Did I take you back and you broke my heart
Oh this song know how I feel
You betrayed my love
Ohh And the moral of the story is
How many times
How many times

[Bridge]

How many times must I cry?
(I'm so tired of cryin)
How many times has my son seen my tears?
(Only 7 years old)
And how many of yall goin
Through the same thing?
I've become so hard to deal with
Cause this part if my heart is so tired.

[Chorus]

How many times, how many times, how many times
Oh I caught you on the phone with her
How many times, how many times, how many times
Did I take you back and you broke my heart
Oh this song know how I feel
You betrayed my love
Ohh And the moral of the story is
How many times
How many times

[Outro]

How many times do I gotta get hurt
To know it aint ever gone get no better?
You, You. This one's for you.
You, You. This one's for you.
