Sorry
I called to tell you that I'm sorry
To have such fun and leave you all alone
Tomorrow
I'm gonna paint the hallway tomorrow
Say it won't be too late to atone

Before old man winter comes to chill your bones
I'm gonna build a fire and heat up some stones
Put 'em under your sheets
I really want to keep your cold feet warm

I don't mean any harm
I don't mean any harm
I don't mean any harm to you...

So sad
To find you crying

So sad to be the one to make you feel so blue
Tonight
I sure will kiss you so nice tonight
I sure will hold you tight and care for you

Before Old Man Winter comes to chill your bones
I'm gonna build a fire to heat up some stones
Put 'em under your sheets
I really want to keep your cold feet warm

I don't mean any harm...

You know the way I feel in my heart...
For you
You know the love I feel in my heart...
Is true
