For every place my body moved
Was to another place I didn't want to
And I never heard a melody so sweet
It lays in shadows building sleep
Constructs a lull that leaves us weak
Imposing silence was quite deafening
It spins about leaving air
God-sent, but so Goddamn misleading

She breathes out sleep
Lovers calm as a whisper
It left us begging for winter
With her body made out of porcelain
I gave her my heart
Made out of paper

Cancer's silhouette sly as a thief
Moves in my chest to my heart's useless beat
But here I am her wooden boy here to perform our songs
Free from her strings

Lover dance
Free from the ties and strings that your...
Your Shadow cast

She breathes out sleep
Lovers calm as a whisper
It left us begging for winter
With her body made out of porcelain
I gave her my heart
