He who is mortal fears death
Good or bad, all must die
Kingdoms rise, kingdoms fall
A curse once made for us all
Believe in God or in your friends
Death is where everything ends
Heaven & hell, do they exist?
Is it bright sunlight or cold grey mist?
You will die, that's her wish
Lady Death
When you're dead, they lower you down
Into that hole in the ground
Some get wasted, others get burned
That's what happens if your page is turned
Ashes to ashes, dust to dust
Don't know why but it's a must

Struck by a car or stabbed with a knife
Living in fear for the rest of your life
You will die, that's her wish
You will die, that's her wish
Lady Death
He who is mortal fears death
Good or bad, all must die
Kingdoms rise, kingdoms fall
A curse once made for us all
Believe in God or in your friends
Death is where evrything ends
Heaven & hell, do they exist?
Is it bright sunlight or cold grey mist?
You will die, that's her wish
You will die, that's her wish
Lady Death
