Wrong place. wrong time.
Am I a victim or will I be a culprit?
Too many pictures of abundance. they seduce me.
Now I'm a culprit. they caught me,
They sentence me to custody.
Sitting in a prisoncell.
Now I'm so alone.
Thinking about my offence.
Wishing I were home.

A prisoner talks to me:

Legal force can't reach me. in my mind I'm so free.
They can't break me, cause I am strong.
Breakdown - they've got a long wait coming!

They can't break me. they can't reach me.
There's no evil. there's no good.
It exists only in your own reality.
However your thought - so is your realm.
Don't waste your minds on guilt.
Find out yourself and learn.

A voice talks to me:
