

The Explosion

"Life"

I send a candle and a flame against the darkness and the fear
I send the rising of a new day for the night to disappear I send you sunlight, rain and clouds for a rainbow in the sky
I send the sea wind and the waves and two feathered wings to fly

Refrain:

I send you life ? I will send you life

I send you dreams, I send a smile, and a happy song to sing
I send you flowers for your hair and red ribbons to tie in I send you tales almost forgotten of old times long ago I send a little cat to hug and a white horse to ride on
