Ocuppy music

I brought you something close to me Let the sun from you see your head You imagine... what to do... Just ready

With my believe I leave out of beat With check to check If you don't move then I don't eat So we like neck to neck Black super heroes is what we would man... Martin lex luther now... the professor x Grew up over the atlantic meeting with atlantic Ironic that's the same seat We cross when we were landed On, now let me play rock it... it's all we sanded All those look lip... and hip hop is what we was branded Wan't only... though We be missing ourselves Now we sell ourselves shorter we can sell ourselves So we sign the majors for all the whistles and balls You think going on board 'cause... your tracks is real

So we sign the majors for all the whistles and balls
You think going on board 'cause... your tracks is real
Over well I wanna train fro the hall of fame
'Cause some niggas will hang it up for thinking the frame

If you believe in yourself nobody can be blamed You'll be fighting for what you're believing and plan

Chorus:

Find me a lighter
If you wanna see
'Cause I got the evil to make you believe
Revolution is revolution
Just revolution we believe
When the fight stars

Yeah

L seven Visit

Yeah!

It's heavy... till like black... no condom It's one of those kind of nights When I'm a numb believe a Took off my guard of my... And I walked in church Symbolism in em I had no time for preaches Just a tv we dreamed it that turn off voice to heal it Well we can more than follow Then knew the... lead it And you too views and who that... And celebrity diets became news I was sliding on a riot with propane view That I was soaking on my closet things that you made cool Feel like I got something to prove to my whole grade school With me being in minority what's a majority rule The only kid at the table who didn't have cable 'Cause mama ain't able and daddy is unfaithful

Chorus:

Find me a lighter
If you wanna see
'Cause I got the evil to make you believe
Revolution is revolution
Just revolution we believe
When the fight stars...
Tell em more
The revolution, it's revolution
Revolution, revolution

My frame got his shot and said it was fatal This moments like this they said... believe
