I hear the trumpets of the apocalypse
announcing the end of man,
so please end
this exploitation,
exploitation...

Thou shall not poison the earth.
Essence of all existence for with her.
We fall along
into the abyss of avidity.
Sealing our destiny with a kiss of death.
Defense of innocent life
is my declaration.
Retribution, humanity harvests destruction.
Ad we have shown desolation.
desolation..

Vision of apocalypse complete devastation.
Final Judgment falls upon us as we reap
the land.
When mother earth?s lifeforce depletes,
action must me taken to free the world from its sickness.
Action for justice leads to freedom.
Action for justice ...
Scorched landscape burned to ashes.
Original state of balance forever lost.
Creation of nature is drowned into concrete.
Oblivion embraces paradise
while helpless species die.
We forge this world into an hell.
Industrial madness consumes gaia.
Witness the demise of life
under the siege of inhumanity.
Breathless mother helpless she dies...
