The road of rosemary sweet
Has a thorn reminding me
Because of you, i learned to pray
Anything to keep you far away
The road of rosemary sweet
Has a thorn reminding me
The world i've been so mad at her and the
World no matter what it turns
The more i see it the more it burns oh
Who's taking care of love
Who's taking care of love
The road of rosemary sweet
Has a thorn reminding me
And because of this i learned to pray
Anything to give me peace some day
The road of rosemary sweet
Has a thorn reminding me
The world i've been so mad at her and the
World no matter what it turns
The more i see it the more it burns oh
Who's taking care of love
Who's taking care of love
Who's taking care of love?
I've got my ear to the ground
To hear your footsteps coming around
Down the road of rosemary sweet
There's a thorn that's saved for me
The world i've been so mad at her and the
World no matter what it turns
The more i see it the more it burns oh
Who's taking care of love
Who's taking care of love
I'm taking care of love.
