

The Explosion

"Satisfied"

Should I be safe at home
A stronger man who really should know
Better than to reach the edge and
Try to fight this on my own

Can I be something I have yet
To see in my close friends
They've all lost their heads
And it's bringing me down
To the place where I'm supposed to...be
Responsibly...for now

Chorus:

I want it, I need it, just one more to Satisfy
Can't help it, feel nothing and nothing feels right

Should I be safe at home
I relapse quicker than you could know
My past compulsions breed convulsions
A sorry scene unfolds

Can I be weak when I'm stable
Strong in the cradle
Strung out in a fable
