Something to say
Something to do
Something i want to say to you
Something i want to say
But i just can't get it right

We stayed up late last night just talking
And i wonder if you are listening
Or do you even care
When night has turned to day
And everything is still the same
It's clear we won't get anywhere from here

[Chorus]

It's pathetic
You don't get it
I've told you so many times
I don't feel like this will ever end
Everything i say and do
Is misunderstood and misconstrued
So don't take anymore of my time
