(David Barratt/Bill Clift/Carl L. Marsh)
Anybody ever had a dream wouldn't wake up
And lose it over me Anybody ever stole a scene wouldn't need to
If the could only be Strangely serene facing the shakedown Nobody ever ran the race and came out
The same as they went in Nobody in a sacred place need leave it
If they could only bring Some sense of grace for time to lay down
Hold this terrifying love
A charm against the cold
Do this and think of me
And let the world unfold Spaced out in spacetown I know you've been Shaping up for the shakedown
So let me in
We live and learn or crash and burn
This is spacetown
We're living in spacetown Everybody in the neighbourhood wouldn't move on
If they could only see Everybody for the common good shout something
Apart from look at me Just watch the screen when the mirror breaks down
You with all that you could own
Are trying to be true
And wait so patiently
For a bolt from out the blue Show me something i can use

A stone that i can throw Or shall i turn away
And fall into the flow
