All that I've seen is my love spinning round in circles
This can't be me
Long are the days, are the nights I spend watching people
Think I'm alright

Its not that easy, its not that hard
To find a reason to carry on, to carry on

Colder than ice or a friend who's been told he's nothing
Please, know how I feel
Wronged to by a love
By the way, don't forget your coat as you finally go

Its not that easy, its not that hard
To find a reason to carry on, to carry on

Its not that easy, its not that hard
To find a reason to carry on, to carry on
