It's been 48 hours since I've seen you,
How can this be so right when it's at the wrong time?
Your image doesn't fade out of my view,
I close my eyes, but I just can't seem to get you out of my mind.

Shut out the voice of reason.

Never want to say goodbye, never wanted to let go.
So we hold each other close, before we let go.
A different time, a different place, this would end a
different way,
So we hesitantly say goodbye, I'll never be the same.

Promises will see this through,
My bet's on you 10 to 1 but it looks like we still lose,
You ask for answers I can't give you, you look to me,
But there's nothing left that I can say to you.

Shut out the voice of reason.

Never want to say goodbye, never wanted to let go.
So we hold each other close, before we let go.
A different time, a different place, this would end a
different way,
So we hesitantly say goodbye, I'll never be the same.

We can't hold on to the past this can't last forever.
We can't hold on to the past this can't last forever.
We can't hold on to the past this can't last forever.
We can't hold on to the past this can't last forever.

Shut out the voice of reason.

Never want to say goodbye, never wanted to let go.
So we hold each other close, before we let go.
A different time, a different place, this would end a
different way,
So we hesitantly say goodbye, I'll never be the same.

I'll never be the same.
