Living high up north
Coming south to take it all
Having lots of fun
Warriors rising with the sun
Armed with swords & shields
To fight on ships or fields
Willing to kill & burn
Just for the thrill to learn
Warriors of the dark
They fight back & bark
Warriors of the dark
Prowlers in their ark
They throw their hatchet
Don't try to catch it
With battering axe & sword
They fight for glory & award
The barbarians' deadly revenge
Never comes to an end
As the victory lies up ahead
Don't stop them or you'll be dead
Warriors of the dark
They fight back & bark
Warriors of the dark
Prowlers in their ark
Losing a warlord is fun
They give him the price he has won
In a burning torch he lies well
Sailing to the gates of hell
So they come & go
Leaving the colour of blood & sand
Blue eyes turning black
I swear you, they'll be back
Warriors of the dark
They fight back & bark
Warriors of the dark
Prowlers in their ark
