From an ocean of blood, arise
Retaliation materialized
Bringing death and inevitable demise
To the allies of the despised
They may run but they can not hide
It's a destiny they can not avoid
The pitiful minority of insects
Waiting to be destroyed

Behold the serpent coil towards thee
Causing death and despair to the enemy
Breaking all in it's way, every kraal
Bringing death to all

Come forth mighty one
Let the abandoned taste thy wrath
Liberated millions unite
In the greatest uprising ever seen
Come forth mighty one
Let the leaders lead as they've been led
True evil shows it's face
In a kingdom built on the bones of the dead

Behold the serpent coil towards thee
Causing death and despair to the enemy
Breaking all in it's way, every kraal
Bringing death to all

Come forth mighty serpent, arise
From an ocean of blood retaliation materialized

Behold the serpent coil towards thee
Causing death and despair to the enemy
Breaking all in it's way, every kraal
Bringing death to all

Death to all...
