"Never Gonna Die"

Spread me out across the midnight sky.
What am I love? What am I?
scattered pieces that burn inside your eyes,
What am I love? What am I?
Did you come from a black bird's wing
as feathers fell with grace and love was brought to her knees love?
Surely you are the daughter of love,
love like a fire child.
You burn me up.
Kiss me again.

You and I are never gonna die love.
Darling no matter why,
we're never gonna die love.

A brown boy dancing with a girl made of fire on these wires love.
What am I?
There I'm dancing without my feet.
No we won't cry love.
What am I?
Miles we'll play until the end of time my funny
valentine.
Flows through us like sweet sweet wine love.
When forever come we've just begun to dance.
Kiss me again.

When forever comes we never die,
but you burn me.
You burn me up.
You burn me.
