Answer me! Tell me who are you?
I'm the one who waited for you for years.
-Sorry, I forgot where we met!!
What a shame, you forgot me and left tears in my eyes.
-ah, I'm confused now and my mind is disturbed.
I m really wondering, how could you abandon me and
be confused!
- you must be mistaken and got me wrong.
You are the one to blame, you stole my heart, and left me up all nights.
-are you the one who I promised to come back one day?
Yeah, kindly you were asking me to dry up my tears
and told me that your pain was sufficient.
Forgive me I was wrong? after leaving you, I needed
love.
But no matter how much we deviate from the right thing,
we are always back in tears.
We belong with each other,
my heart was always asking about you,
while you were away and I was waiting now you are back,
we are united again. Let?s live our life together and forget separation and tears.
