I think its way past time to start a file on R.
W. Hampton. He writes most of his own songs and he writes some good ones.
If you like cowboy music I think you'll R.W.

4/4

(C) It is like a (F) wild and beautiful (C) woman
With the (Dm) wind blowin through her (G) hair
And it comes to me, in my (C) dreams
And I (G) find myself (F) wanting to be (C) there

Cimar (F) ron, Cimar (C) ron from (Dm7) you
I've been long (G) gone
But I know that, you are (C) waiting
For (G) me to come (F) home Cimar (C) ron

Words like (F) Miranda and Rey-ah (C) go Sangre De (Dm) Christo and Beau-be (G) on Words like do you still love (C) me
And are (G) you coming (F) home once (C) again

Chorus;

(C) As I ride across that (F) old mountain (C) pass
And I (Dm) see you there be (G) low
Like a wild and beautiful (C) woman
You (G) beckon me with your soft (C) hello

Chorus;
