You can't take hold of me!
I gave up everything!
The photograph reveals the life, we once had!
You can't take hold of me!
I gave up everything!
You never understand the circumstance
I'm never coming back

And I'll give it up,
pretend it's not corrupt,
but I know it's never coming back to me,
Cause what's never known,
I wish could be shown,
But this testimony's not working for me

And this time don't come running back!

Remember the Maine!!!! INCOMING!!! INCOMING!!!!
