"The stars scream out, and spew our names, told through the skies and hellacious waves..."
Copied and calculated we waited forever and now I remember,
how cumulus clouds turned our world upside down.

Help! Are you running from the fear?
Are you really even there? Did it come from the rear?
Hello!? What bearing do I steer?
I swear to god it was here! NOW I SEE IT OVER THERE!
[2x]

*Then it was gone...
...The wind was twice as strong*

*Help! Are you running from the fear?
Are you really even there? Did it come from the rear?
Hello!? What bearing do I steer?
I swear to god it was here! NOW I SEE IT OVER THERE!
[2x]*

*Shoot to kill, but they just won't die!
The bow starts to tip, out of the corner of my eye.
(FUCKING eye! [2x])*

*As the ship is going down,
I look upon the captain's frown...
I see nothing but a broken man!
I see nothing!!! Nothing!!!!*
