Each step that I take,
I feel like your worried bout me every move that i make I feel like you've been watching on me Drive me crazy
When you ask
Wen u follow
When you call me up Loosing my mind
I never want you to say goodbye
You make the mountains and you make me fly, I just want to live like the birds in the trees Baby I can I love you if u set me free Lalalalalalalala set me free each moment with you, i found my self wanting to hold on to but i need you to know,(need yah to know) i cant be yours if you cant let go, i just want you have your heart have your support have your love with out loosing my mind
i never want you to say goodbye
you make the mountains and you make me fly i just want to live like the birds in the sky baby i can love you if u set me free the closer u are to me i need your believing i never did a thing to make u worry about me if you really want to love then you'll set me free Lalalalala wont you set me free ooohh drive me crazy when you know u always own me or you just got let me be me baby i never want you to say goodbye (i would never want you to say) you make the mountains and you make me fly (you make me fly baby _ i just want to live like the birds in the trees baby i can love you if you set, ohh if you set, ohh if you set, if you set me free

you make the mountains and you make me fly i just want you live like the birds in the tree baby i can love you if u set me free lalalalala ohh lalala i want to live like the birds with you if you set me freeeee.. ohh.. ohh
