I spend at least an hour with her every day
She doesn't know how I feel but that's okay
I try to tell myself these thoughts are wrong
But my mind won't listen it won't respond

Of all of her friends she looks the best
And she shows off her figure every chance she gets
With really tight pants and really tight top
She shows off those legs that just won't stop
She's not sure, if her hair is blonde or brown
And there's really just one way we can find out

Don't stand so, don't stand so close to me
This situation is driving me crazy
Don't look down, don't look down or you'll see it all
Don't look down, you will fall

I get nervous every time she smiles at me
And when she calls out my name, I smile back, nervously
Have I read that book? Have I seen that film?
No, but I've seen almost every single inch of her skin
Like that time, when she was sun-bathing in that park
Her clone was there, with same white bikini on

Don't stand so, don't stand so close to me
This situation is driving me crazy
Don't look down, don't look down or you'll see it all
Don't look down, you will fall.

She doesn't know how I feel
But she cares what happens to me
She's loved by both boys and girls
But I'm the only one who still dreams of her

Don't stand so, don't stand so close to me
This situation is driving me crazy
Don't look down, don't look down or you'll see it all
Don't look down, you will fall
