"Kiss Your Ear"

deep in the arms of others i nearly lost myself i passed the final frontier a bell rings five to twelve i took myself on this helltrip hangovers every day a never-ending swimming til you crossed my way

two steps you're ahead now i want to stroke your breast i put my hand on your lips i want to kiss your ear

i see the sweat in your navel the curly hair on my tongue i feel the smell of your last scream now
