They don't understand!
They don't understand!
They don't understand!
They don't understand!
How can you kill them?
How can you kill them?
How can you kill them?
How can you kill them?
They killed me!
They killed you!
They killed her!
They killed him!
Fuck you for being so cold!
Fuck you for being so warm!
Fuck you for being so cold!
Fuck you for being so warm!
That's not the way we do it here!
That's not the way we do it here!
That's not the way we do it here!
That's not the way we do it here!

You should go now,
We don't need you here!
Leniency is the name of the game,
So get the fuck out of here!

They don't understand the rules!
They don't understand the rules!
They don't understand the rules!
They don't understand the rules!
Let them live!
Let them live!
Let them live!
Let them live!
He can live!
He can die!
He can live!
He can die!
He understands!
He doesn't know!
He understands!

He doesn't know!

I should go now,
They don't need me here!
Double-standards are the name of the game,
So I'll get the fuck out of here!

The game goes on.
Penalties go to some.
Others escape on a technicality.
The officials reward the actors
Along with the others.
Maybe I should conform.
Use against them
Their justification.
They plead for it
Until it hits their home.

They don't understand,
The game they play!
I don't understand!
This insanity!
