hes got a bad heart station he keeps it to the sun he had an early conversation this wouldn't be a thing to her heat wave

we haven't seen you fora long long while truth is used to worry about yourself high tide
we haven't chewed so shapply on the line i tried when we lose the fight to stay its fine i will be back in no time i will speak to you
i think we'll start a fire
thought i heard from someone who knows leave it to me to lead slowly before i let you fall asleep tonight sit beside me right beside me the red lights
its taking so long to see the headlights i haven't for been here long long while i think ill start a fire and keep it to the sun with conversations [...] we shouldn't be a thing to her
