[Infinito 2017]

MotoLyrics

I'm like truth supplied in a fictional world Where a man got the nerve to dress up like a girl Under earth like Shambala, well versed in who I am Step on you like Watusi, Big Shaq types Enter this world like meteorites, aight? Spoken word Slap a government official, no I don't like Bush Ishtar studyin socialized reading all books Looks can be deceiving I'm like, triple darkness You see me as a black hole, youths teleported Your time machine will not help you travel like a Hebrew, sham me down You doing Hinduish devil worship Cats see me with George P-Funk Parliament, I'm a soul man And I know man, walking tornado, stop sucking my air.

And I know man, walking tornado, stop sucking my air in

The Garden of Eden, Adamites of the 24 elders Greeting known today as cloning Black people spend what they don't have to buy what they don't need, uh

[Chorus: repeat 2X] Complication, this is my application Breaking the spell, of the United Nations Through procreation, watch the planet's devistation As I continue on you face your annihilation

[Infinito 2017] Nonchalant, narcotic free, never lost Rlght here in touch with reality Music to me is artistic, catch the half time, turned up twisted Countering the conspiracy to destroy black boys listen To the trade news on {?} and see how words can become an outlet for creativity, unorthodox for society The sky doesn't have to distort his voice to show prison Excellent appearance and knew the city of the sun Check the scrolls from lower to upper Egypt

With an eye all-seeing never blind

Crossed the Nile River with something of importance Too much slang to pronounce everythang Y'all hate on me because I don't throw on a out-of-town accent to make a new song, to make a new song, to make a new song To make a new song, to make a new song, to make a new song To make a new song, to make a new song, to make a new, song Yeah, uh-huh

[Chorus] - 1/2
