

Red Hot Valentines, The "Fair Warning"

Pleased to meet you
I've been looking for someone to try this out on for a while
And I'd love to Get inside your head
And find out what I said that made you smile
If I seem crazy
It's probably you

(chorus)
I should warn you
I've been trying to get close to you
And all I can tell you
Is you are where I want to be

I can tell you
I've been thinking of the ships I'm sinking day by day
I should warn you
I'm not concerned with bridges I have burned along the way
If I seem crazy
It's probably true
(chorus)

And if it takes forever
To take you by the hand
At least I'll know that it was worth the time
That it took to lose my mind
(chorus)
