

Red Hot Valentines, The "Wishful Thinking"

Life is nothing but a dream to me and I said
"Dreams are good but there is more to life than that"

What is going on here today?
Jack is on the road and we're trying to make our own way
In a world of sex and cash and clowns
And a race to fall straight down

I've got a feeling that something's happening
But it takes me and it takes you

Come on let's see what this life can give us
I mean come on let's see what we can give this life

I've been doing some wishful thinking
But unfortunately thinking doesn't get me anywhere
Here I go again with just one clue
That I must do what I must do

I've got a feeling that something's happening
But it takes me and it takes you

Come on let's see what this life can give us
I mean come on let's see what we can give this life
Today's the day to decide if we're really gonna do this
And everyday that you hear this that'll be right
