I hope you're feeling OK, I hope you've had a good day.
And when you knock upon my door I hope you're ready to play.

I think he knows what to do, I saw him jumpin' the queue,
But in your heart is fascination and we're waitin' for you.

Come and get it if you want it,
Ellie's all dressed up like she promised,
Anna she don't care what's wrong or right.
Janey's gonna live forever,
Sally's gonna get drunk whatever,
Everybody round our house tonight.

So the morning has come, and Paul is still on the drums,
And all the neighbors stopped complaining when we poured 'em some rum.
And we've made so many friends, we don't want it to end,
Why don't we put on something fabulous and do it again.

So come and get it if you want it,
Ellie's all dressed up like she promised,
Anna she don't care what's wrong or right.
Janey's gonna live forever,
Sally's gonna get drunk whatever,
Everybody round our house tonight.

Got to be there

Should've been there, should've been there, ah ah,
Should've been there, should've been there,
Should've been there, should've been there, ah ah,
Should've been there, should've been there

Every game played, has a winner,
And every sin made has a hundred sinners.

Come and get it if you want it,
Ellie's all dressed up like she promised,
Anna she don't care what's wrong or right.
Janey's gonna live forever,
Sally's gonna get drunk whatever,
Everybody round our house tonight.

Should've been there, should've been there, ah ah,
Should've been there, should've been there,
Should've been there, should've been there, ah ah,
Should've been there, should've been there
