You found a way to change the world
A simple gift for every boy and girl
Always a piece for everyone
You showed them all that giving can be fun
Giving can be fun

Connor, you've got the life I want
Connor, I got it all so wrong
You'll never know
Connor

You've got the life I want
You've got the life I want
You've got the life I want
Connor

Those poisoned pills, we passed around
They made us heavy, pulled us to the ground
But you were built from beams of sun
Naive and unaffected by a world that's come undone
Oh, what can be done?

Connor, you've got the life I want
Connor, I got it all so wrong
You'll never know
Connor

You've got the life I want
You've got the life I want
You've got the life I want
Connor

Connor, you've got the life I want
Connor, I got everything wrong
You'll never know
Connor

You've got the life I want
You've got the life I want
You've got the life I want
Connor
